San Diego Maintenance and Layover Facility Study Update

The California State Transportation Agency has made approximately $300,000 available to advance the planning process for identifying and evaluating potential locations for a new maintenance and layover facility for the Pacific Surfliner intercity passenger rail service in San Diego. This report provides an update on the San Diego Maintenance and Layover Facility Study.

Direct staff to develop a scope of work and schedule in coordination with the California Department of Transportation, Amtrak, the San Diego Association of Governments, North County Transit District, and San Diego Metropolitan Transit System for the San Diego Maintenance and Layover Facility Study.
